

Washington Academy of General Dentistry, CDE Cancellation Policy

In case of cancellation by registrant, refunds will be made if received in writing to the continuing educational director and its committee, NO LATER than two weeks (14 days) prior to start of course date. A $50 processing fee is charged on refunds. Washington Academy of General Dentistry (AGD) reserves the right to change speakers, equipment/materials used or course dates without notice due to unforeseen circumstances. In the rare event that attendance is insufficient, participants will be notified of cancellation or reschedule two weeks prior to course date and a full refund will be given. In such circumstance, organizers will not be held liable for any expenses already incurred by any participant. At no time is the Washington Academy of General Dentistry (AGD) liable for payment of non-refundable hotel reservations, non-refundable airline tickets nor car rentals reserved by registrants due to a cancellation of a program, weather related cancellations, natural disasters, power outages or emergency building maintenances. Registrants are encouraged to take out travel insurance to cover in the event of a cancellation.

Cadaver or Pig Jaw Course Cancellation Policy

In case of cancellation by registrant in a hands-on cadaver or pig jaw course, refunds will be made if received in writing NO LATER than four weeks (30 days) to the continuing educational director and its committee prior to start of course date. A $75 processing fee is charged on refunds. Washington Academy of General Dentistry reserves the right to change speakers, equipment/materials used or course dates without notice due to unforeseen circumstances. In the rare event that attendance is insufficient, participants will be notified of cancellation or reschedule three weeks prior to course date and a full refund will be given. In such circumstance, organizers will not be held liable for any expenses already incurred by any participant. Washington Academy of General Dentistry is designated as an Approved PACE Program Provider by the Academy of General Dentistry. Unless a specific cancellation policy exists on a single course page, the CDE cancellation policy is in effect.

Year-Long Continuing Dental Education Programs

Due to the nature of our year-long programs, no refunds of the yearly tuition will be given once the program starts. Organizers will not be liable for any expenses incurred by participant due to missed sessions. Unless a specific cancellation policy exists on a single course page, the CDE cancellation policy is in effect.

Written Communications, please address to:

Attention: Washington AGD CDE Committee
19415 International Blvd, #410, SeaTac, WA 98188
Office #206-212-4969 or Email: info@washingtonagd.org